

Jettie, Number 4

I dont know how to say, to act, to do, today are you the same?

Somewhere out there your hands will feel the breeze
I know for sure
do you dare to try?

Like a story, fingers are crossed for you
Like a story, fingers are crossed for you

I dont have to speak
your smile will be the sign
This is the time
Somewhere in here, youre free to let the past, just be the past.
if you dare to try?

I know for sure we will be on the way to green/the vallies, anytime now.
I know for sure...

Like a story, fingers are crossed for you, my love
Like a story, fingers are crossed for you
