Jewel, I Do

We've been doing this war dance together for sometime I know And treating love like a battlefield and taking it slow

Will you blink What do you think The union we propose is dangerous, I know

Love is a game until it's played And if it's lost it can't ever be saved We have heaven to gain and hell to lose But the difference is up to me and you So if you will, I will stop saying I won't And start saying I do

But life can take a long time If you make the wrong choice Time sure seems to fly by When I hear your voice

Mistakes are hard, I hope we find The courage to believe We will succeed

'Cause love is a game until it's played And if it's lost, it can't ever be saved We have heaven to gain and hell to lose And the difference is up to me and you So if you will, I will stop saying I won't And start saying I do

Well our hearts are locked inside an iron box We're both too afraid to reveal our most tender parts, oh

Because love is a game until it's played And if you lose, you can't ever be saved We have heaven to gain but hell to lose The difference is up to me and you So if you will, I will stop saying I won't Stop saying I can't Cause if you do, I do
