She said she wants to kill me
The way we're living has taken its toll
I really think she wants to kill me
From the look in her eyes she's ready to go
Promises, promises
Don't mean anything at all
When dreams become reality
That's when I'll take my fall
All this time wasted
Living the lies we've created

She said she wants to thrill me
I think she wants to lose control
(Come on)
She said, "You might have to commit me"
But when I'm insider her I can't let her go
Promises, promises
Don't mean anything at all
When dreams become reality
That's when I'll take my fall
All this time wasted
Living the lies we've created
She said she wants to kill me
I really think she's gonna kill me
