

Jil Is Lucky, Don't Work

You don't have to work that hard
You don't have to love the money
To live for the money and work that hard

Be content with flowers blooming
And children growing
And don't work that hard
Just because your time is running
Now you're missing all

Please don't let the seasons go away
Try to make them stay
Five weeks in a year
It's like one second in a day
Please don't work that way

Please don't work so hard
Just because the time is running
Now you're missing all
Please don't let the seasons go away
Try to make them stay
Five weeks in a year
It's like one second in a day
So please don't work
