

Jim Bakkum, Tell her

I knew a girl who's broken-hearted
Over a boy who could not share his feelings
she really loved him
And I know a boy who could not say just Three little words that will make her day
It hurt her, though he really loved her
If there's a lesson to be learn it's a hard one to take
Once it falls a part it's so hard to unbreak
So don't you ever make that mistake

Chorus:

Tell her you love her
How much you love her
Don't turn away
Don't be afraid
Tell her you love her
Time marches on and the boy grew older
Every day wondering if he told her something
Would it be different
If there's a lesson to be learn it's a hard one to take
Once it falls a part it's so hard to unbreak
So don't you ever make that mistake

Chorus:

Tell her you love her
How much you love her
Don't turn away
Don't be afraid
Tell her you love her
How much you love her
Don't turn away
Don't be afraid
If there's a lesson to be learn it's a hard one to take
Once it falls a part it's so hard to unbreak
So don't you ever make that mistake

Tell her you love her

Chorus(2x):

Tell her you love her
How much you love her
Don't turn away
Don't be afraid
Tell her you love her
