

Jim Brickman, Hear Me (Tears Into Wine)

Take these tears,
put em in a bottle.
Don't let these tears I cry be in vain.

Take these tears,
keep them up in heaven.
Water my life with tears like rain

Hear me,
hear my words unspoken,
Restore my faith in hopin'

Hear me,
I am feeling broken I am broken open.

Take this life,
turn it into something,
I'm afraid it's just wasting time

Turn this life the sun has ripened, grow it slowly on the vine.
Turn my tears into wine

Turn my tears into wine,
turn these tears into wine
All that's left of me are traces.
Make me stronger in my broken places
