Jim Brickman, You

I never felt alone I was happy on my own And who would ever know there was something missing I guess I didn't see the possibility It was waiting all the time But it never crossed my mind Till you opened up my eyes Now all I think about is CHORUS: You in my life In my dreams In my heart I know it's true That I belong with you Because of you in my world In my arms I have everything and now I can't imagine what I'd do Without you I never thought that love could be Such a curiosity But what attracted you to me Was so unexpected But it was waiting all the time And it never crossed my mind Until you opened up my eyes Now all I think about is CHORUS (x2) In my life In my dreams In my heart I know it's true That I belong with you Because of you in my world In my arms I have everything and now I can't imagine what I'd do I can't imagine what I'd do Without you Without you
