

Jim Croce, More Than That Tomorrow

Hey love don't be afraid to stay until tomorrow
Lover's dawn is waiting just this side of day
If you thought I loved you yesterday
I'll love you more than that tomorrow

Hey love don't be afraid to hear the songs of morning
Birds will sing them as they're calling up the day
If I sang to you yesterday
I'll sing more than that tomorrow

If it should happen that you come to me
In the night we share our hearts
Whatever it is that you done to me
Between you and me, can't be undone...

If I should understand just why I need you by me
Then I would know the reasons for the songs of morning
'Cause if I wanted you yesterday
And if in the night we shared our hearts
Whatever it is that you done to me
Between you and me, can't be undone...

Hey love don't be afraid to stay until tomorrow
Lover's dawn is waiting just this side of day
If you thought I loved you yesterday
I'll love you more than that tomorrow

If you thought I loved you yesterday
I'll love you more than that tomorrow
