Jim Ed Brown, Dream On

I met a girl and her eyes were blue Oh, what a girl as I love her true I know that we will never part Dream on, she'll break your heart.

Last night we went to a picture show I held her hand till time to go She let me kiss her in the dark Dream on, she'll break your heart.

--- Instrumental ---

Our love was real not just a game And I just know that she feels the same She love me true right from the start Dream on, she'll break your heart.

Dream on, she'll break your heart.

Well, now I'm happy as I can be I'm gonna ask her to marry me Then we will never be apart Dream on, she'll break your heart.

Dream on, she'll break your heart. Dream on, she'll break your heart. Dream on...
