

Jim Ed Brown, The Enchanted Sea

There is a sea, the enchanted sea,
That only lovers know
It sings a song as it flows along
With waves that whisper low.

When love is true it will be endless
And deep as the deep blue sea
Your tender love brings the magic of
The enchanted sea to me.

(When love is true it will be)
(Endless and deep as the deep blue sea)
Your tender love brings the magic of
The enchanted sea to me...
