

Jim Reeves, Could I Be Falling in Love

I feel very strange there's evidence of a radical change could I be falling in love
I see through a port new moons high above or is it just your intoxicating love
My heart's a flaming fire the moment you appear
I have just one desire to have and hold you near I've tried to resist the strange mystery of
The need for your kiss could I be falling in love
[trumpet]
I have just one desire...
Could I be falling in love could I be falling in love
