Jim Reeves, Just Call Me Lonesome

I climb the stairs up to my room But no one meets me in my gloom The silence tells me she is gone Just call me lonesome from now on.

Why must I love a heartless one Who never know the harm she's done Though love is blind I should have known Just call me lonesome from now on.

--- Instrumental ---

These walls will hide me when I cry And hope that heaven lets me die What good is life when hope is gone Just call me lonesome from now on.

I pray my memories at last Will fade into the distant past If I must live and love alone Just call me lonesome from now on...
