Jimi Hendrix, Voodoo Child (Slight Return)/Stepp

I sure got the blues this morning, baby
Yeah! And Im here to tell you about it
So you might as well pick up on it!
Im a man
At least Im tryin to be
Ive lived before
The other half of me
Ive lived before
That you dont want me
But in this search
For nothing desperately
Oh, Im tryin tryin
Not to be a fool
Im tryin tryin
Lord to keep my cool, baby tryin so hard to keep it together

After I find, baby
That true love of mine
Im just rollin screamin
Cryin flyin
Cant be trusted, but busted

Youre a woman At least you say you are Youre a woman At least you look like you are Youre a woman At least you taste like you are But you can take it off In bed with my guitar And then you leave them Throw me outside To cry, cry To the moon and the nighttime Save my soul, You can't find All you want is a ticket to ride After you show me everything It did prove otherwise You just rollin, screamin, cryin good love is sometime, but cant be trusted Steppin Stone Steppin Stone Steppin Stone
