

Jimmie's Chicken Shack, Outhouse

wish i could play outside but soon the sun will rise fires starting everyday
but when the night time falls tides wash over everything here in this insect ocean
vacuum up the sky
would you see clear
waves of madness
falling on the shores of discontent

toxic tides wash over everything here
in this insect ocean

i think it's time no more waiting
here inside my head
it's about time
i can't wait here any more playing inside my head

i think it's time no more waiting
here inside my head

just get teh fuck outside
