today the clouds they kind of spoke to me happy faces that no one else can see its been year and i'm still lost in you it makes the things that i don't really want to do so predictable

i am
so predictable
i am

happy times open doors to candy stores shoes with the heels worn sideways from the crooked inside you but it can't hide you
you say
you say you're so clean yeah i can smell it

that's the best tv i've ever seen watching the miles roll on my screen a couple flys stuck to the window and i know we're going now i'm excited and how

so predictable
i am
so predictable
i am
so predictable
i am
so predictable
i am
