

Jimmys Chicken Shack, Pure

if i saw myself today with a different set of eyes if i sold myself to you would it be wise

when you've paved out all the lies finalize the words that you say like i'm not breathing whole

if i'm falling in

i'm just stumbling through my life by myself

and i sometimes realize that we have nothing left to save still i've never felt this high and through fortune lights your way it will never be pure

promises
you and your promises

all i ever really need is you all i ever really needed was pure in you in you i'm pure
