

Jimmies Chicken Shack, Spiderweb time to scale again the wall eight feet move two inches tall I watch in mirth as she catches prey I see her work here everyday another web in my path that spider lays I think theres nothing to it think Im just gonna walk right through it dont ever give up on yourself(x3) wont ever give up Im young Ive seemed to done it once again a spiderweb gets stuck all in my head I walk through it everyday its just the path I lay if she could catch me in her web I wonder how many days she could be fed on the flesh that clings to these lanky bones

don't ever give up on yourself(x4) dont ever give up on yourself because I will never give up in myself the circle of humanity is a 360 that begins and ends with me and my endless interactions with seperate entities that make up my family so what we need is that aphrodisiac to protect us from the webs that hang low to hunt our heads we're not going out like that this time this time we're gonna walk right through it throw your hands in the air if you know what this is about see I snatch mic's and cross boundaries while the crowd be jumping around and wilding and getting rowdy time to break free of spiderwebs that surround me while I chase my destiny the beat that brings out the best in me if the spider catches me then that will be the death of me be the sole controller of your mind you cant escape it power is only passed to those who dare take it from the spiderweb
