

Jimmy Dean, To Get To You

I'd walk out on all my friends to get to you
If I lose them all for your love I'll do that too
Guess they mean well when they tell me what to do
But they don't know how far I'd go to get to you
Burning bridges behind me to get to you breaking all ties that bind me to get to you
I hold your love far above what I go through
I'd give all I own for a stepping stone to get to you

If it's the last thing I do I'll get to you
Because I know just how much you want me to You're the only thing that can bring my world in view
Every breath I take every move I make is to get to you
Burning bridges behind me...
