

Jimmy Eat World, Just Watch The Fireworks

Here you can be anything.

I think that scares you.

I've been here before but only by myself.

What giving up gives you and where giving up takes you.

I've had and I've been.

Here in center frame, there's only air.

Just enough space to fit.

I said it out loud over and over but what do I know.

I said it out loud but it did not help.

I'll stop now.

Just so I can hear you I stay up as late as it takes, as long as it takes.

I promised I'd see it again.

I promised I'd see this with you now.
