

Jimmy Nail, Calling Out Your Name

what do you do
when it hurts
when the kids
call you names ?
nobody wants to know you they won't let you join in all their games and what will you do when the man in the moon goes away ?
and leaves your little world in darkness hiding from the night time until the day you can come to me, I'll know what to do
and if I don't I'll pretend or I'll lie for you but I'll be there for you forever
until the day I die
right there by your side,
to keep you safe and warm glad to be your shelter from the storm yes I'll be there for you
forever
until the day I die
and what will you do when you've grown and flown away ?
where will the four winds take you ?
will they bring you back to me someday ?
and what will you do
when the one that you love breaks your heart ?
you have to pick up all the pieces but you don't know just where to start
you can come to me,
I'll know what to do
forever
until the day I die
right there by your side
to catch you when you fall and put you back together whether-with-all
yes I'll be there for you for always
until the day I die
until the day I die
I'll be there
until the day I die
until the day I die
I promise
until the day I die
