

Jimmy Nail, Crocodile Shoes

wine, beer and spirits all the time though I have you still she's always on my mind the rain falls down I'm soaking through I'm an old man inside a young man's suit my crocodile shoes are crying too for they know how much love I have for you crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes wine, beer and spirits take me down the lights are low and there's no one else around the waitress sure looks pretty and that's a bad sign I smile at her still yo're always on my mind with your crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes I've lost so much in a short time don't see my kids how I miss my wife I let the world slip through my hands and now I'm talking to the only friends I have crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
they're crying too
they're crying too
crocodile shoes
crocodile shoes
