Jimmy Nail, Don't Wanna Go Home

here he come again that man in the mask telling me I have to go home telling me I have to go home again pointing with his finger and waving that lamp telling me I have to go home telling me I have to go home again I don't wanna go home don't wanna go home no more I don't wanna go home no more don't wanna go home no more just when I get to thinking that I've shaken him free just when I get to thinking that he's gone from me he seems to have a hold upon my soul

here he come again that man in the mask telling me I have to go home telling me I have to go home again I don't wanna go home don't wanna go home no more I don't wanna go home don't wanna go home no more because I've been a lot of places that I shouldn't have been seen a lot of faces that I shouldn't have seen said a lot of bad things that I really didn't mean but they still won't let me go I don't wanna go home don't wanna go home don't wanna go home don't wanna go home don't wanna go home
