

Jimmy Nail, Still I Dream Of It

Words and music by Brian Wilson time for supper now day's been hard and I'm so tired I feel like eating now smell the kitchen now hear the maid whistle a tune my thoughts are fleeting now still I dream of it

of that happy day
when I can say I've fallen in love
and it haunts me so
like a dream that's somehow linked to all the stars above young and beautiful
like a tree that's just been planted I found life today
I made mistakes today will I ever learn the lessons that all come my way
of that happy day
a little while ago
my mother told me Jesus loved the world and if that's true then why hasn't he helped me to find a girl and find my world ?
'til then I'm just a dreamer I'm convinced of it the hypnosis of our minds can take us far away it's so easy now you see someone up there high in heavens here to stay
