

Jimmy Nail, Until The Day I Die

Words and music by Jimmy Nail what do you do when it hurts when the kids call you names ? nobody wants to know you and they won't let you join in all their games and what will you do when the man in the moon goes away ?

and leaves your little world in darkness hiding from the nightmare until the day you can come to me, I'll know what to do and if I don't I'll pretend or I'll lie for you but I'll be there for you forever until the day I die
right there by your side, to keep you safe and warm glad to be your shelter from the storm yes I'll be there for you forever
until the day I die
what will you do when you've grown and flown away ?
where will the four winds take you ? and will they bring you back to me someday ? and what will you do when the one that you love breaks your heart ? you have to pick up all the pieces but you don't know just where to start
you can come to me, I'll know what to do
but I'll be there for you forever
right there by your side to catch you when you fall and put you back together whether-with-all yes I'll be there for you forever
until the day I die
until the day I die
I'll be there until the day I die
until the day I die
I promise until the day I die
