

Jimmy Nail, Waiting For The Sunshine time was when I was a different boy innocent of life until you came around the boy turned bad time was I never ever dared to touch not they've got my fingerprints all over town

could have been the boy who gave them hell could have been the king of cool as well but you had to blow it all and tell ah, well
waiting for the sunshine
waiting for the sun to shine all over me I'm waiting for the sunshine you said 'love will never be enough' turn your pretty head and I was on my knees
the boy turned bad
you said 'babe, you've got to be so tough take a bite of life and don't you say please'
the boy turned bad
