

Jimmy Nail, Wicked World

hey wicked world I'm down on everything that makes you turn forbidden pearl
I hate you with a pain that makes me burn
oh wicked thing I curse you but I need the feel you give destroy my world but feed me with the juice that makes me live
I want, I need
I need to have you feed from me
I'm up, I'm down
my head is spinning round and round
I'm in, I'm out
it's such a wicked world
some better day
I'll walk along these boulevards alone
I will be free I'll shake you from my veins and from my bones but not for now I need your little number one last time I have no shame
you're so sublime
I want, I need
I need to have you feed from me
I'm up, I'm down
my head is spinning round and round
I'm in, I'm out
it's such a wicked world
oh, I would lie for you I would die for you I would crucify the stars up in the sky for you I'm so weak
but with your help I will be strong
I want, I need
I need to have you feed from me
I'm up, I'm down
my head is spinning round and round
I'm in, I'm out
it's such a wicked world
