

Jimmy Robbins, Hey You

Verse 1

Hey you, yeah you
Playing with my hope for truth
You always know just what to say to make me lose my confidence it's here and then it's gone again maybe it's better off this way with pathetic me, just pathetically singing myself sick

Chorus

Did you know you can let go
Let loose sometimes
And maybe dance maybe hold hands
Just dont give up tonight

Verse 2

Hey you, yeah you
Playing with my hope for truth
you always know just what to say but maybe it's better off this way with you pathetically singing yourself sick

Chorus

Did you know you can let go
Let loose sometimes
And maybe dance maybe hold hands
Just dont give up tonight

Bridge

1,2,3 don't blink don't breathe 1,2,3 don't lose the beat we're making history
And youre so special, oh so special
And all Ive got is time

Chorus

Let loose sometimes
And maybe dance maybe hold hands
