

Jimmy's Chicken Shack, Pure

if i saw myself today with a different set of eyes if i sold myself to you would it be wise when you've paved out all the lies finalize the words that you say like i'm not breathing whole
if i'm falling in i'm just stumbling through my life by myself and i sometimes realize that we have nothing left to save still i've never felt this high and through fortune lights your way it will never be pure promises

you and your promises all i ever really need is you all i ever really needed was pure in you in you i'm pure
