Jimmy Somerville, Junk

He can't take the street no more Street too full full of junk Thinks he'll hide in his room Room too full full of junk

He turns to his t.v. t.v. full full of junk Processed zombies pushing junk Junk food junk clothes Dressed in junk from head to toe

Eat what you're given Eat what you're given Eat what you get Eat what you're given

Eat what you get Eat what you're given Eat what you get

Be thankful what you get He screams for more Hits the night life once again Night life full full of junk

Junk is all he'll ever know Junk music junk dance Too many junkheads on the floor

(repeat chorus to end)
