

JJ72, Long Way South

torrential high seas dragged me to my knees bleeding perfumed blood magic mixed with mud and grace i need you to ease my place in this world a face i don't wanna ever death defying breeze is just what i need ease this passing blood pressure in my ears and
to ease my place in this world
