

JJ72, Nameless

Stumbled round, you I found
Adored your glory, you're my story
Then you let me down, let down
You know we're the same
Once I frowned, then I found
The one I love, as if from above
You smile at me, I smile at you
We were the same
You are not an enemy
You are not an enemy
Gentle as the sky
Please don't ask me why
You are not an enemy
You are not an enemy
Gentle as the sky
Please don't ask me why
I cry
