

Joan Armatrading, In Your Eyes

In your eyes
I can see
Something
Something
So sure
In those eyes

As bright as the stars
As blue as the sky
I could die
In your eyes

In your eyes
I can see
Something
Something
So sure
And those eyes
Are not for hurting

You have the power
In those eyes
In your eyes

As bright as the stars
As blue as the sky
I could die
In your eyes

As bright as the stars
As blue as the sky
I could die
In your eyes
