

Joan Armatrading, Wrapped Around Her

I've been steady
I've been sweet
Said you loved me
And I believed
It's time
To make up my own mind
I picked the wrong guy
I picked the wrong guy

I might plead
On bended knees
But lately
She's the one you need
It's time
To make up my own mind
I picked the wrong guy I picked the wrong guy

I don't want to lose your love
But I can see you
Wrapped around her
Wrapped around her
I can see you
Wrapped around her

I don't want to lose your love
But I can see you
Wrapped around her
Wrapped around her
I can see you
Wrapped around her

I put rhythm
In your soul
Gave you sweet
Rock and roll
I know it's mad
I was so blind
I picked the wrong guy
I picked the wrong guy

I don't want to lose your love
But I can see you
Wrapped around her
Wrapped around her
I can see you
Wrapped around her

No good crying now
The milk has spilled but you know
You didn't fool our friends
They always said you were naughty
Ooh
I picked the wrong guy
I picked the wrong guy
I picked the wrong guy

I don't want to lose your love
But I can see you
Wrapped around her
Wrapped around her
I can see you
Wrapped around her
