

Joan Baez, Glad Bluebird Of Happiness

Glad bluebird of happiness

C E
I was walking down the road, not caring much where I was going d G C
A heavy pack upon my back, burly good with inner sad of loneliness
C E
When fluttered by this bird of blue, he said Ill tell you what I ll do
d G G7>>>
Since you seem to be so sad, I will try and be your glad..
bluebird of happiness

F C
And he goes flying, far over the ocean blue,
G C
bound for places, I am not known to.

C E
I decided to follow him, my thoughts have faded dim since then
d G blown foggy by the wind a paced,as from shore to shore we race,
move from place to place
E
The moon is hot, the stars are cold. Ive been there, thats how I know d
Ive touched the desert sunsets coat
G G7>>> C
placed to dove the melted snows of Kilimanjaro

F C
And he goes flying, far over the ocean blue,
G C
found the places, I am not known to.

C E
Ill follow that bird untill he dies and when he does then so will I, d G
I know I ll never be the same, LiFe to me is bound to change
when that ends the chase
C E
I lift his body from the sea, let him dry in a trade wind breeze
d G G7>>>>>
find some merry christmas views, wrap them up and give them to you G4 C
my bluebird of happiness

F C
And he goes flying, far over the ocean blue,
G C
found the places, I am not known to.
