Joan Jett And The Blackhearts, Love Me Two Tin

(The Doors)

Love me two times, baby Love me twice today Love me two times, baby I'm goin' away Love me two times, baby One for tomorrow One just for today Love me two times I'm goin' away

Love me one time
Could not speak
Love me one time
Yeh my knees got weak
love me two times, baby
Last me all though the week
Love me two times
I'm goin' away
Love me two times
I'm goin' away
Oh, yes

Love me two times, baby Love me twice today Love me two times, baby I'm goin' away Love me two times, baby One for tomorrow One just for today Love me two times I'm goin' away

Love me two times, baby Love me twice today Love me two times, baby I'm goin' away Love me two times, baby One for tomorrow One just for today Love me two times I'm goin' away

Love me two times I'm goin' away Love me two times I'm goin' away
