Joan Jett, Love Me Two Times

(The Doors)

Love me two times, baby Love me twice today Love me two times, baby I'm goin' away Love me two times, baby One for tomorrow One just for today Love me two times I'm goin' away

Love me one time Could not speak Love me one time Yeh my knees got weak love me two times, baby Last me all though the week Love me two times I'm goin' away Love me two times I'm goin' away Oh, yes

Love me two times, baby Love me twice today Love me two times, baby I'm goin' away Love me two times, baby One for tomorrow One just for today Love me two times I'm goin' away

Love me two times, baby Love me twice today Love me two times, baby I'm goin' away Love me two times, baby One for tomorrow One just for today Love me two times I'm goin' away

Love me two times I'm goin' away Love me two times I'm goin' away
