

JoAna, I'm alive

Bring my deepest faith back to my soul
Never let me steal your mind and go
Spread my wings and set my feelings free
Beat the world and run to the sun with me

I'll never be alone
You will be strong enough to hold on

I'm alive?
I'm alive?
I'm alive?

Try to find the voice of destiny
Keep your secrets far away from me
Feel the love I have inside for you
There is nothing, that we couldn't do

I'll never be alone
You will be strong enough to hold on

I'm alive?
I'm alive?

Take all my life and hold me now
Let's fly to the moon, I'll tell you how
I'll be your sign-post lying on your floor

I will show you heaven's door

Fight for your dream like you did before
Tell everyone, that you fear no more

Give a little hope, more love?
Find yourself and see the meaning of your brightest side and you'll be fine?

I'll be fine?

I'm alive?
