

Joanna Pacitti, Let it slide

It's a touch without feelings
It's a kiss without love
It's the faith that we're losing
And the truth that we hide
It's a tear without cryin'
It's a world with no sound
A smile full of sorrow
And a love we left behind
Keep me from falin' from falin'
You got to set me free
Free from cryin' from cryin'
And now it's clear to see
See that I'm leavin' , I'm leavin'
Cause it's time to let me be
Ref.Let it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say good-bay
But the time has come
Let me spread my wings
Time to let me fly
Let it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say good-bay
But the time has come
Let me spread my wings
Time to let me fly
It's a room full of silence
It's a day without light
Where anger keeps rising
And there's nothing left to say
It's your face at the window
It's the world pressing by
And the love that we shared
And the love we followed
Turned to pain along the way
Keep me from falin' from falin'
You got to set me free
Free from cryin' from cryin'
And now it's clear to see
See that I'm leavin' , I'm leavin'
Cause it's time to let me be
Ref.Let it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say good-bay
But the time has come
Let me spread my wings
Time to let me fly
(it's time to let me fly) (ye ye)
Let it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say good-bay
But the time has come
Let me spread my wings
Time to let me fly
Slide...
Slide...
Slide...
Come on baby
let it slide
Slide...
Slide...
Slide...
Come on baby
let it slide
Let it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come
Let me spread my wings

Time to let me fly
Come on baby
let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come
Let me spread my wings
Time to let me fly
Let it slide
Let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come
Let me spread my wings
Time to let me fly
(uuuuuuu) (ye ye)
