

Joanne, I Don't Know

You Got the news today
Said I was happy for you
So you got to go away
And do what you got to do
But in my mind I keep asking myself why
Why do I have to let you go
Why must i say goodbye

I'd be smiling on the outside
And wishing you well
But I'm dying on the inside
Its hurting me like hell
Don't know how to let you go
I just don't know

Chorus
I don't know what to do
I don't know what to say
Don't know if I'd get thru
Or if this pain will go away
don't know if I can breathe
Just don't know what to feel
Cos I don't know anything but you

Its time to say goodbye
I wished you would just walk away
If you touch me one more time
I'd breakdown and beg you to stay
Now I'm letting all my heart is breaking up in two
And I close the door
And I turn around
I just want the best for you

I'd be smiling on the outside
And wishing you well
But I'm dying on the inside
It's hurting me like hell
I don't know how to let you go
I just don't know

REPEAT CHORUS

Don't know what to do
Don't know what to say
Will I get thru
When you go away
Don't know what to do
Living without you
I don't know anything
Anything but you
Don't know if I can breathe
Cos I don't know
Anything but you

Repeat Chorus X 3
