

Jocelyn Enriquez, Save Me From Being Alone

to live in a house not a home, i've counted my tears falling down, each night for all these years i cant believe it ends like this we've gone on our own seperate ways to find... ourselves again...
where should i go from here?
can i, live here without your love ? somehow? someday, i'll make it through....
please help me ease the pain im lost i cant find my way hope and pray it will end in time the pain inside
can somebody hear?
im crying for shelter

please help me see this through a world that can no longer feel seems that they have abandoned me
forgotten me,
do i blame myself?
save me from being alone....

how can u mend a lonely soul trying to leave the past, the sorrow and the lies how can i forgive someone who just doesnt understand that the love has gone away? maybe its for the best to live these lives on our own to say goodbye
still i wonder why....

please help me ease the pain
im lost i cant find my way
hope and pray it will end in time
the pain inside
can somebody hear?
i'm cryin for shelter

please help me see this through
a world that can no longer feel
seems that they have abandoned me,
forgotten me,
do i blame by myself?
save me from being alone.....

to live in house
without your love
still wonder why
can somebody hear?
can somebody hear?
im crying for shelter
save me from being alone.....
