

Jodeci, My Phone

Yesterday was pouring
For straight two months now
How did we do it I just don't know how
Life's a real big pain
Without you
You left you did the same
Cause my love was so true
Your friends told me that
You kept up with me I don't understand
Why we both can't see
Why is it this way
When we knew it could be
Could we both just stop
And listen to me
All alone I sit at home baby
Waiting for the phone to ring
All I know is that I miss you baby
This loneliness is driving me crazy
My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face, knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same girlfriend
Who was that guy I caught you walking with
In your smile I knew you wasn't with it
Let's stop awhile
And start our love again
It won't take no time
For our hearts to mend
All alone I sit at home baby
Waiting for the phone to ring
All I know is that I miss you baby
This loneliness is driving me crazy
My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face, knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again I know you feel the same girlfriend
My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face, knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same girlfriend
I wanna tell you why I'm lonely
I'm so lonely without you
Don't know what
I'm about do, oh girl I guess I've got to Take you, back now
Driving me crazy, baby
Crazy, loneliness is driving me crazy
Loneliness is driving me crazy I don't know what to tell you
My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face, knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again I know you feel the same girlfriend
You don't come around
You don't call me no more, baby
This loneliness is driving me crazy
[repeat 2X]
My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face, knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same girlfriend
My phone doesn't ring anymore
Ring anymore, baby
