

Jody Miller, I Remember Loving Someone

Don't ask me to trust you I don't know how that's done
And yet I remember trusting someone
Don't ask me to need you but need I have none
And yet I remember needing someone
I think I recall a face that was dear and somewhere in it all came a kiss and a tear
Don't ask me to love you I can't love anyone and yet I remember loving someone [strings]
I think I recall a face...
