

Joe Bonamassa, Asking Around For You

If i get to heaven
the first thing i'll do before I meet my maker I'm gonna ask around for you all of heaven gotta know your beauty ever true I'll tap an angel on the shoulder

and I'll be asking around for you

I'm sure you've found a place up there where we all can sit and talk a while play some cards and drink black coffee
How I'd love to see you smile

If I get to heaven
and I'm praying that I do I'll be the first thing I do
I'll tap an angel on the shoulder
and I'll be asking around for you

I'm sure you found a place up there
where we all can sit and talk a while
play some cards and drink black coffee
I'd love to see you smile

If I get to heaven now oh I'm praying that I do
I'll be the first thing I do
I'll tap an angel on the shoulder
and I'll be asking around for you
and I'll be asking around for you
