

Joe Christmas, I'll Bet You Do

You want some of this?
Some of me, some of you
You want some of this
Yeah Yeah I'll bet you do

How are you supposed to know
When you're talking numbers
If you would only let it go
Maybe you could lose your #'s

It may be way too late
But not for too much longer
You wanted some of this
But you're so far from done.

How are you supposed to know
When you're fooling everyone
If you would only let it go
Maybe you could lose your #'s

How are you supposed to know (x4)
