

Joe Diffie, Hallow Deep As Mine

You might have sent a message like a whipser on the breeze
Recon its no wonder that it never got to me
Im down here in Kuntucky where the sun dont ever shine
The wind the dont blow in a hallow deep as mine...

(Chours)

If I look straight up at the sky
I can see the clouds rolling by.
Well they're there and then they're gone
But im still here alone
The wind don't blow in a hallow deep as mine.

I saw a lil blue bird
Heard him singing throught the trees
It brought me right back to you, just as pretty as you please
Then he took to flying disapeared among the pines
but i cant get out of a hallow deep as mine

(Chours)

If I look straight up at the sky
I can see the clouds rolling by.
Well they're there and then they're gone
But I'm still here alone.
The wind dont blow in a hallow deep as mine.

No the wind dont blow in hallow.

deep as mine.
