

Joe Diffie, My Give A Damn's Busted

1st verse

Well you filled up my head,
With so many lies.
You twisted my heart
Til something snapped inside.
I'd like to give it one more try but my give a damn's busted.

You can crawl back home
say you were wrong,
stand out in the yard
and cry all night long.
Go ahead and water the lawn.
My give a damn's busted.

(Chorus)

I really wanna care,
I wanna feel somethin'
Let me dig a little deeper.....
Nah...
Sorry....
Nothin'

2nd verse

You can say you've got issues.
You can say you're a victim.
It's all your parents fault,
I mean, after all you didn't pick em
Maybe somebody else has got time to listen.
My give a damn's busted.

Well your therapist says
It was all a mistake
A product of the prozac
And your co-dependent ways
So who's your enabler these days?
My give a damn's busted.

(Chorus)

I really wanna care,
I wanna feel somethin'
Let me dig a little deeper...
Nah, still nothin'
