

Joe Dolan, Endless Magic

The pale blue moonlight
Shining through your hair
Leaves a warm emotion
In the cool night air
I can feel my heart beat
As you walk on by
A complete sensation
To the human eye.

Irresistible I've fallen for you
Your endless magic is beautiful

A perfect body
With an angel's face
Your sophistication
Oh it radiates
I could be your lover
And a best friend too
Guess I ought a dream on
It would never be true

Irresistible I've fallen for you
Your endless magic is beautiful
