

Joe Ely, Love Is The Beating Of Hearts

Love is the beating of hearts
Like distant drums in the dark
Love gives and love takes away
True love will meet you half way

Hearts tell you things words can't say
In darkness or light of day
As far as I can discern
Love asks for love in return

Baby I know how you feel
Love is the only thing real
I know what you're looking for Baby I've been there before

Love gives and love takes away
True love will meet you half way

Love is the beating of hearts
Like distant drums in the dark
Love is the beating of hearts
Love is the beating of hearts
