Joe, I Believe In You

(feat. N Sync)

I never believed in dreaming, it never got me very far. I never believed that love could find me, like an arrow through the heart. I never believed in miracles, or building castles in the air. Not until that day I found you, turned around and you were there. From the day you came, you gave me, a whole new point of view. I've been touched by an angel, it's impossible, but true.

I believe in you.

I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place. I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always.

I never believed in fairy tales, tho sometimes I wish I could, I never believed that golden slippers could ever find the perfect foot. I never believed in magic, or that wishes could come true, But your very first kiss changed all this, something only you could do. You made me a believer, you made me trust again, You showed there's a pot of gold, at every rainbow's end.

I believe in you.

I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place. I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always.

Only love, sets you free, And if you serve to fate, then you're my destiny. Now I know, now I see. Anything can happen, if you just believe.

I believe in you.

I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place.

I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always.
