

Joe Jackson, We Can't Live Together

In distant lands
There's no such luxury
You'd give your hand
In pre-arranged matrimony
You'd wear the veil
I'd sit in some cafe somewhere
Instead of this running around
And this right to be free
So pleased with ourselves but there's one thing I've found about you and me
We can't live together
But we can't stay apart
In all my dreams
I've wanted someone like you
With no extremes
We'd both do what we have to do
But it's too easy, and then it's too hard
And passion gives us away
We know when to play the right cards
But we never know what to say
And we can't live together
But we can't stay apart
Why can't you be more like me
Or me like you
And why can't one and one
Just add to two
But we can't live together
And we can't stay apart
